

CBBAG - OTTAWA VALLEY

Minutes

October 9, 2019

Theme: Cold tooling on leather

Workshops

Bookbinding 101 was held in September, and was great, with 7 people attending. Two were from New York, and 1 joined CBBAG. Bookbinding 1 was deferred, as no one had signed up. A free bookbinding day will be offered on October 26. Details are on the Facebook page. Anyone can come for free for an informal day of bookbinding. If a few people with some experience come, they could help out the new attendees. The workshop will be held at the Nepean Creative Arts Centre, and a map will be added to the website. We are going to have feedback on Eventbrite, so that a person could indicate why he or she couldn't come, due to cost, location, etc.

Workshops have been lined up for the year, except for November. All are on the website. If you have any ideas for November, let us know!

Book Arts Show

The show has tentatively been booked for May 16, 2020, at the library at Carleton University. They will set up tables. Not sure yet regarding food. Advertising and marketing will be done by the University as well. There may not be a cost to us for holding the sale there. Once the cost is confirmed, vendors will be invited. We will have access to display cases for CBBAG books, etc.

Treasurer

Nancy reported that there was $9540 in the bank, and all was status quo.

Swap

Tiffany reported on the swap. Everyone who participates will make signatures, which will be due in March. The theme is fire. Information will be posted on the website, and will also be in French. People can sign up either by email, or by letting Tiffany know.

Website

We now have a resources page. If anyone has any suggestions for additions, please let Roxanne know. Roxanne will change our meeting location to downstairs (craft room) at the Sandy Hill Community Centre.

Show and Tell

There was a general show and tell that was enjoyed by all.

Demo

After the break, there was a hot foil stamp and blind tooling demo by Spike and Tiffany.
