

CBBAG-OV Meeting

Minutes

September 11, 2013

Theme: Origami, with Yuka

President

Our meeting started at the new time, 6:30 pm. An earlier start means more room in the parking lot. The traffic was fine too.

There were no new members in attendance. All minutes and meeting notices are on our webpage, and links to these are in every message that gets sent out.

Maggie reminded us that this year's swap will take place in April, 2014, with boxes being exchanged. Holiday ornaments can be shown at the December meeting, if anyone wishes to make one. Snipped from last year's minutes: This year, the swapped item will be a box. It can be any size under 10". Those wishing to participate need only make one box.

Workshops

Space for workshops has become a challenge. October's class with Maggie has been cancelled. Workshops will thus move to Routier, on Guigues Street. Madeleine offered to check the Preston/Somerset location for availability. Three people have signed up for Nancy's introductory bookbinding.

Treasurer

No report.

Other announcements

Steve has printed a new cat book and instructions for a matchbox cover, which he distributed to those present. Each person is asked to bind the book and make a cover. It would be good to have a show of the bound books. Since it is a Christmas story, December was chosen as a due date.

Shlomo has the set of CBBAG DVDs. We will try to view them, and see how they work. We are not sure if a special program is needed on the computer to view them.

Program

Our program was origami with guest Yuka. We made bookmarks, samurai hats, and challenged ourselves with cranes. Everyone enjoyed folding the great papers that Yuka had for us. Many thanks, Yuka!
